Windows 7 Activator

December 30, 2020 - Microsoft has officially ended support for its former flagship operating system, Windows 7, in early 2020. The year is drawing to a close... which means there is no operating system on the market that could offer users an upgrade to Windows 10 or more anytime soon. Microsoft plans to transition its customers to Windows 10 S and Windows 10 Pro next year, and in Windows 10 S they can only get Windows 10 Home or Windows 10 Professional. In the coming months, Microsoft plans to provide customers with an upgrade to Windows 10 Pro or Pro, but they will need to pay $19.99 to do so.
