What's new:

- FIFA Ultimate Team has been totally redesigned, from how you play it and how you get better at it, to building your ultimate collection! Highlight real-world locations like Trafalgar Square and the Houses of Parliament in the Soca™ Stadium -- or put them to your own use in the new Create-a-KIT feature.
- The Player of the Year mode has been completely overhauled! Analyse formations, build the best team at your club, and show off in the Golden Boot race in a variety of match types, including BeauGeste, Way of the World, Freekick Shootout, Freekick Battle, and more. New to this mode is the ability to award individual accolades to your aces, with a Golden Boot race for individual players, a World Golden Boot award, and Club Golden Boots. Plus, you can now take the pitch to show off all of your World XI, in a brand-new mode.
- Improved AI: New to this year’s update is a more dynamic and reactive AI. Tune them into your individual play style with new artificial intelligence settings and a new Sideselect function that will use formation logic to choose the most challenging side for the opposition.
- All-new ‘Proper Timing’ engine: We’ve also worked closely with our Pro teams to find out which input is most indicative of a good-quality shot. The result is a new engine that can now successfully tell a difference between a shot from 20 yards, a glancing header, and a bouncing chip, and will react accordingly.
- Simply the best goalkeepers: Goalkeepers in FIFA 22 will now react more dynamically and more realistically than ever. Whether they are coming out of their area, defending for Real Madrid or Newcastle, or rushing off their line to keep out Ludogorets' unstoppable counters; you can now save your best saves for when they really matter.

- In-depth, real-world ball physics: As a result of five years' worth of development, FIFA 22 has some of the most detailed, accurate and realistic ball physics. Feel through the pitch with a blade of grass, a wisp of wind, or a dive as deep as you dare.
- New Conditioning system: FIFA Training Grounds is also bringing a new Conditioning system, making it easier

FIFA is the most comprehensive and beloved sports gaming franchise of all time, by far. Realistic gameplay that feels right at home on a console. Familiar teams, ball control, and celebrations all managed to stay true to their original versions. And FIFA 20 made its debut on the FIFA YouTube channel less than a month ago. We had a first look at how the year's 2019 FIFA World Cup South American edition would change. While having a 20th anniversary in 2019 is super cool, all the attention has been given to the World Cup. That's why I'm so excited about FIFA 22. That's the basic edition, which is the one that goes on sale September 4th.

The other editions will be £49.99/€59.99/€69.99. That's by popular demand. We did a survey of PC gamers to see which edition of FIFA they would prefer. The March Madness Edition, which gives you all the most coveted in-game content, is priced at £79.99/€99.99/€129.99. That's the sweet spot for most players. Read: What is FIFA?
