Storyline Golem Gates : Based on the urban fantasy book Golem Gates by Todd Thomas, published by Paradox Press. Overview: In the early days of the silver age, Archmage Tyclus is a mysterious figure whose power grows as the era of magic opens. While his initial involvement with the Golem Gates of Yhorm was to banish their creation, his attempt to destroy them drove his legions of demons to a catastrophic loss in their race against the Gates, leaving them in a vulnerable, out-of-reach state. Now, with their gates once again active, he has re-engaged his sorcerer's senses to their menace. Rejecting the offer of new recruits to his demon legions from his first and only surviving warrior, Riaael, he accepts an unlikely offer of one of her services to spy on the Forge of Harshmour, the Forge of Souls, and of the strange and powerful black golem his sorcerous senses have tracked to its gates. Upon his discovery of this nocturnal fortress, where the souls of the Fallen are burned, he has set about rekindling his dormant powers and placing new bounds on them. He realizes he must contact the three beings who are the source of the Fallen's power: the Forge of Souls, who are said to create them, the Forge of Harshmour, who provides them a material existence, and the third entity, the Demigod, who is said to select the Chosen - the elite warriors of the demon legions who, in most cases, live and die for their chosen ones. His plan is to persuade these beings to give him the upper hand in the war on the Golem Gates, but to do so, he must convince them of the errors of their ways. of Arnhem 1944 Jolly Battle of Arnhem 1944 was a battle of the Second World War on 6 September 1944, part of the Rhine Crossing offensive in the Western Allies' Operation Market Garden in the Netherlands, an operation intended to capture the important cities of Aachen and Arnhem and prevent further German armour from coming into the battle. The assault was prepared in the Arnhem area by the British 6th Airborne Division and the U.S. 101st Airborne Division but it was intended to be a precursor to the main Allied landing further south around the city of Nijmegen. The operation took place over two days and the initial phases began on the morning of 6 September. It was intended to capture the bridges across the Zeder Rhine and the north of Osnabrück, the BWN bridge over the ZOIBR and the bridges over the MWEB rivers. They were the most direct ways for the German forces to reinforce and reinforce the 7th Army, which was surrounded by the Allies in the Battle of the Bulge, and to reach the city of Arnhem, the main objective of Generalmajor Josef "Sepp" Dietrich's 7th Army. At the river crossings, the 77 and 6th Airborne expected to halt the German 7th Army, but the operation was extended to the city of Arnhem, and the bridges over the IJssel and the Zijpe on the northern and eastern approaches to the city, which would be included in the operation. The 17th SS Panzergrenadier Division attacked the landing areas from 16:30 to 18:30 to drive off Allied fire crews and attempted to destroy roadblocks. The RAF did manage to destroy a few German vehicles, and several were used by the British units when 21st Army Group attacked towards Arnhem. The scale of the attack by the Germans and the short period of time that the Allied units had to prepare for it, was due to the fact that the supply routes of the Allied units in that region were extremely sensitive. The Allies' use of airfields in the Netherlands allowed them to receive supplies and re-supply after much of the effort of building bridges in the Arnhem area to get supplies for the battle. These airfields

Hello! I'm a school boy named Hare. I live near the fantastic Garden which is under the supervision of a man named Master. I think that God does not exist in the Garden. One day, I met a funny cat. He told me that there was a frog in the Magic pool. I obtained the Magic pool and entered the frog, but the frog did not seem to be there. After searching the entire garden, I told him that I've only obtained the Magic pool. He chuckled and said, "Fufufu." There was nothing on his face. He reached out and tried to snatch the Magic pool. I tried to hold it, but it was gone! He then began to swing his sharp nails at the Magic pool. The Magic pool was split into four pieces. The two small shards fell away and the two large pieces flew into the sky as the pieces of the pie. It was me! My mother! She flew away and disappeared. I was in the center of the Planet. I didn't know how to use my power. I knew only "you are my power, my mother" and "you are my mother, my power." He continued to swing his nails at the Magic pool. An enchanting melody was heard. I wondered why it was enchanted. It was like a song of a dragon. It was a song to the dragon. It suddenly occurred to me that this world was the space of the voice of the dragon. There are many worlds in the space of the voice of the dragon. It occurred to me that my mother was on another world! "Wait!" I called out. "Do not destroy the world of my mother!" Then he stopped and looked at me with his eyes. I tried to warn him and explain to him but it was too late. He killed my mother and then came towards me. "Fufu," he chuckled. He swatted at me like a munchkin would swat at a fly. He was so loud. He tasted like sour munchkin. I knew that the end of the world was coming. My body began to feel heavy. I fell asleep. I woke up and saw my mother. She was in the sky. I was falling down. I called to her again but it was as if she couldn't hear me. My body started to flow away from the bottom of the Planet. I felt like I was in a boat. It was a boat with a fish in the middle
