Ultimate. Lake House The Lake House (also known as the Strobridge-Roberts House and Lakeview) is a historic house located at 5175 Blackbob Road in Strobridge, Michigan. It was listed on the National Register of Historic Places in 1986. History The lake house was built in 1875 for James Strobridge, the founder of Michigan Savings Bank. Around the same time, Strobridge also built a white pine palatial mansion nearby at 5165 Blackbob Road for himself and his wife, Matilda Munroe.

Both the lake house and the mansion were designed by Lansing architect James D.
Hedding. In the 1880s, the house was acquired by the owners of the Strobridge Restaurant, who wished to have an alternative place to entertain guests and hold banquets. They hired Richard Roberts to remodel the house. Most of the house is original, with only minor changes in its interior. Roberts modified the house by adding a large structure on the lakefront with many windows and a rooflight. The structure was originally intended to house a motorboat, but was eventually used as an outdoor kitchen. Following the owners' deaths, the house passed to their children, who lived there until the mid-1960s. In 1970, the house was listed in the National Register of Historic Places. The house was purchased by Tom and Sue Strobridge in the early 1970s. Description The Lake House is a 2-1/2-story wood frame structure, with balloon frame and balloon frame gable roof, and clapboard sheathing. It is long, with a central entrance porch on the lakefront. A series of Tudor Revival windows are located in the house's front-facing gable end, as well as in the roof above the porch. A porch with scrolled-woodwork is located at the house's rear corner. On the interior, the first floor features original walls and ceiling, with a large fireplace dividing
