May 5, 2012 I recently came across this little gem and decided I had to have it. This is the New England's way of creating foot or pedicures, if you will. It's so cool. Here's what you need to get started:

- A small bowl of warm water
- A small bowl of salt (I used Morton's coarse salt)
- A few drops of any type of essential oil
- An old or new pumice stone/sponge
- Some sort of massage tool (in my case, the handle of a blender)

Here's what you do. 1. Make sure to wear old, clean socks. If you are using the sharp edge of a blender, do not use it on the fleshy part of your foot. 2. Dip your feet into the warm water. Ensure your feet are completely submerged. You may need to add additional warm water. 3. Add a couple of drops of essential oil to
